

Important Safety Recall Notice

Delta Ceiling Hoist with Straps (Item RS2300) manufactured by Delta Cycle Corp

We have learned that the plastic buckles for the straps can fail as shown below. You should discontinue using these straps immediately as they present a fall hazard which could result in injury. These straps are used in storing a kayak, canoe, ladder or other larger items. If you are not using the straps and only using the hooks, no further action is required.

Detail of how buckle may fail	Use that may require recall depending on serial #

Please follow the steps below to fix this problem. Failure to follow these steps could result in injury.

- 1) Please check your serial number by looking at the larger pulley on the side that would touch the ceiling.
